"WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT FUNERALS"
LAURIE POWSNER, VOLUNTEER FUNERAL CONSUMERS ALLIANCE OF PRINCETON (FCAP)

The Alliance is a volunteer-run, not -for-profit organization that is not associated with the funeral industry. They provide support, education and advocacy, and other tools to empower you to make informed, thoughtful decisions about funeral and memorial arrangements before they are needed. They provide comparison prices for local funeral homes and detailed explanations of your rights.

Monday, June 10th
"EMPOWERING YOUR DECISION TO STAY OR TO MOVE"
A PANEL PRESENTATION

A Panel of Five experts will address the issues facing seniors at some point: legal planning, a reverse mortgage, homecare options, downsizing, healthcare advocacy.

Randi Goldberg: Archer Law Senior Resource Specialist

Lisa Crusier: Patient Advocate, Certified Dementia Practitioner

Ken Sawan: Certified Reverse Mortgage Specialist with Benchmark Mortgage

Sheli Monacchio,: Executive Director of Akin Care Senior

OnSTAGE SENIORS

Performing for the Golden Age Club

MONDAY, JUNE 17 AT 1:00 P.M.

Adath Israel Synagogue

1958 Lawrenceville Road, Lawrenceville, NJ

OnStage Seniors gathers true community stories to share through documentary theater. Led by director David Lee White, this season's program, "Give and Take," invites audiences to connect and find common ground through heartfelt performances. Our Ensemble discovers stories through Story Circles and interviews across Central New Jersey, ensuring that every voice is heard and honored on stage. Join us for an unforgettable experience celebrating the power of storytelling
